Vayu, the Wind

Written by Madhuri Pai

Illustrated by Rijuta Ghate

Translated by Rohini Nilekani

Everytime I finish my hot, hot bath.
My wet body feels so cool, cool cool.
Who makes that happen?
Vayu, the wind!

The milk in my cup – too hot, too hot.
But soon it is ready for me to gulp.
Who makes that happen?
Vayu, the wind !

The window curtains flutter
and gently brush my face.
Who makes it happen?
Vayu, the wind !

A bolt of lightning far away.
Black clouds moving my way.
Who makes that happen?
Vayu, the wind !

Branches sway and leaves tremble.

Flowers gently fall.

Who did it all?

Vayu, the wind !

Far from the house, we are playing,
yet, I can smell the sweets mother is preparing.

Who makes it happen?

Vayu, the wind !

A glass tumbler on a window sill,
crashes on the ground.
Thank God, I was not around.
Who played this mischief ?
Of course, it was
Vayu, the wind !

A whistle blows. A train rolls in.
I cannot see, but hear its din.
Who makes that happen?
Vayu, the wind !

Cannot be seen.
Cannot be heard.
Does all the work
without a word
Who can it be ?
Of course!
The wind!

My name is Swati and one day I'll be a good teacher like all my favourite teachers. I enjoy wearing new clothes and dancing to film songs also. I'd love to learn to use the computer. Thank you for buying this book. My friends and I will get to read many more books in our library because you bought this book.

Madhuri Pai has a Ph.D. in Physics. She likes to write for children and is currently working with Pratham.

Rijuta Ghate is a graduate of Sir JJ Institute of Applied Arts, Mumbai with a specialization in illustration. She is fond of cartoons, animation and illustrating for children's books. She has worked with animation film 'Hanuman' and other animation projects. She has illustrated many books and worked for NGOs such as Pratham.

Big ideas in fun stories for children to read and enjoy.
